LOCATION

Belfast 2014 is a vibrant bustling city which last year celebrated 400 years since receiving its charter. Originally a small fishing village, it was dwarfed by the fine-castled town of Carrickfergus until the 17th century. The city grew rapidly in the industrial age - linen, shipbuilding, engineering and rope-making amongst the leading trade players - becoming Ireland's second city and a powerhouse of the Empire.

A picturesque and compact hilled city and leading port, Belfast has many lovely walks and places of interest aside from the central area. To the north, you can find Belfast Castle and Cavehill Country Park, to the West the rugged beauty of the Divis and Black Mountains; to the south the scenic Queens University area and the majestic Lagan Valley Regional Park, and to the East the iconic parliament building in the Stormont Estate.

With an impressive cultural base which has brought forth a number of unique talents in the arts and sporting worlds, our city has been making headlines recently for all the right reasons - The MTV Awards, Game of Thrones, and most recently the Giro d'Italia. Belfast Toastmasters are extremely proud to welcome you. We have a great programme planned and intend to make this conference an unforgettable experience for all involved.

VENUE

Europa Hotel, Great Victoria Street,
Belfast BT2 7AP

The Europa Hotel, located on Belfast's Golden Mile, is the chosen venue for the Autumn Conference. Despite once having enjoyed the dubious honour of being the most bombed hotel in the world, it remains at the heart of our city and is a recognisable and well-loved landmark. It has hosted many notables since opening in 1971, none greater than President Bill Clinton who was a guest during his visits to Northern Ireland in 1995 and 1998. In fact the suite where he and Hillary stayed was renamed The Clinton Suite in their honour. An elegant and modern establishment within easy reach of all transport nodes, the Europa is a superb setting for our conference.
